CLOTHING OUR KIDS (COK) PRESS RELEASE – AUGUST 26, 2024 WE DID IT – COK DELIVERS FIRST SUPPLY OF CLOTHES TO SUSSEX COUNTY CENTRAL HIGH SCHOOL IN GEORGETOWN

CONTACT: kblouin@clothingourkids.com; 302-864-KIDS (5437)

With the start of the 2024/2025 School Year, Clothing Our Kids (COK) has graduated into High Schools. Not wanting to abandon the Sussex County students in need after Middle School, COK's goal is to eventually serve all 14 High Schools in the next three years. For this year, we're working with Cape Henlopen, Sussex Central in Georgetown, and Woodbridge High Schools. COK Volunteers have been busy over the Summer purchasing new clothing before the schools open in Fall.

Collaborating with Nurses, Social Workers, Counselors, Principals and other School Personnel, COK is stocking school closets to provide an opportunity for every student to achieve excellence.
