Laurel represents the fourth Sussex County High School supported by COK. The organization began with a pilot program at Cape Henlopen High School last February filling nurses' closets for students in need of appropriate clothing. In addition to Cape Henlopen and Laurel, COK fills closets at Woodbridge and Georgetown's Sussex Central High Schools. Our goal is to help these students learn with dignity and reach their true potential. COK is extremely pleased to welcome Laurel High School as a beneficiary of our school clothing program.

COK Volunteer Buyers Debbie Faust and Marilyn Kray purchased the basic garments for the Laurel closet. Marilyn is a veteran buyer while Debbie is a welcome new addition to the COK family. Debbie mentioned she is honored to be a part of COK after delivering the clothing to the school.

Pictured left to right is COK's Marilyn Kray and Debbie Faust with Laurel High School Nurse Logan Downes who said "Thank you, all! We are so excited and grateful."
